

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS FOR

DARE TO DREAM 3.0

Q: The Contest open to Individuals and Start-ups only, or can I participate as a team?

The contest is open to Individual and Startup. In case, a team of individuals want to participate. Total maximum 04 members with one defined leader can participate under individual category.

Q: Will all my team members received cash award on winning?

Cash award will be handed over to registered individual.

Q: Can I participate in against only 1 problem or against multiple problems?

You can submit up to five entries, either against one problem or more than one problem as per your choice.

Q: Can I submit multiple entries against a single problem?

You can submit, multiple entries, i.e. a maximum of 5 entries. You may select to submit all 5 entries against one problem or more than one problem as per your expertise and convenience.

Q: How will my entry be evaluated?

Entries will be collated against different problem domain. The entries will be checked for completeness. Any query found incomplete will be summarily rejected. The participant has to ensure that the entry is complete in all respect.

Entries will be evaluated by two level of expert committees and the committee may contact the applicant on need basis. The decision of committee will be final.

Q: Do I need to come to specific place for participation?

Initially, you have to submit the entries online. The evaluation committees on their discretion may ask to come to a specific place for discussion / presentation, etc. as part of participation. The organizers will have no responsibility to reschedule the date and time of participation in any case.

Q. Who will bear the travelling / lodging expenses for participation in the contest?

Participant has to bear the cost for travelling / lodging for competition.

Q: Will there be additional documents required for evaluation later?

The evaluation committee on their discretion may ask for additional information to carry out complete evaluation of the entry.

Q: Do I need to submit only idea, or model and prototype is also required?

The entry should be as comprehensive as possible. Presence of model or prototype helps in better understanding of the solution.

Q: Why do you have write-up restriction of 200 word?

The 200-word restriction is to summarize the solution projected. The detailed document can be submitted as PDF attachment.

Q: Can I submit my entry useful for other fields in Open Category?

The entries in the contest for Open Category must have direct application / utility in defence or aerospace domain for consideration in the contest.

Q: I am a minor, can I participate?

The eligibility requirement of this contest is 18 years of age in individual category.

Q: I am an OCI card holder, Can I participate?

OCI Card holder is not qualified as Indian Citizen to participate in this contest.

Q: I am minor but have a start-up, can I participate?

In order to participate as a Start-Up, DPIIT registration is must. The contestant must be Indian Citizen with more than 51% shareholding of the start-up.

Q: I don't have PAN Card, what should I do?

In case of winning any award, you are required to furnish the PAN card details.

Q: I have a start-up but it is not registered with DPIIT, Can I participate?

You can participate as individual category.

Q: I am DRDO employee. Can I participate?

The contest is not open for DRDO employee or their family members.

Q: I am working in a private company. Can I participate?

You may participate as per terms of your employment.
